

Teacher of Art & Design Person Specification

The successful candidate will:

Teaching & Learning
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• possess and demonstrate excellent and up to date subject knowledge underpinned by a good Art or Design related degree• possess a postgraduate teaching qualification (including QTS)• demonstrate outstanding teaching practice at Key Stages 3, 4 and 5, including having high aspirations for their students
Pastoral
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• demonstrate the ability to lead, inspire, motivate and support pupils in their learning• develop positive and professional working relationships with pupils and parents• demonstrate the ability to create positive rapport with students• be an energetic and supportive form tutor
Extra Curricular
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• be willing to positively contribute to the extra-curricular life of the department and school
Professionalism
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• be able to evidence relevant professional development• be willing to assist in the development of the department and in the creation of new schemes of work• demonstrate an ability to work as part of a team in a successful and dynamic department;• demonstrate excellent ICT, organisational and administrative skills• be confident and competent in relevant Health & Safety matters• demonstrate high levels of personal and professional integrity• present themselves to the highest standards of personal presentation• have an excellent attendance record• communicate effectively both orally and in writing to a variety of audiences• be able to work flexibly, demonstrating an ability to be proactive, and self-directive while remaining positive and energetic• be committed to their own professional development• have the ability to inspire and motivate students• be committed to the values of Sir Roger Manwood's School