Deputy Director of Education (Inclusion)

Required: Start of Academic Year 2024/25 (Flexible)

FTE Salary: £65,629 - £75,478 (0.6/0.8 FTE)

Deputy Director of Education (Inclusion)

Aquinas Church of England Education Trust is looking for a Deputy Director of Education (Inclusion) to join the Central Education Leadership Team. The successful candidate will lead in the development and delivery of our inclusion practices, helping to support our drive to ensure all our pupils experience an exceptional education.

Supported by an experienced team of education professionals both in the central team and in the schools, the post holder will be making a difference to the lives and opportunities of the children and young people with SEND in our care. At Aquinas we believe in the promise of 'Life Transforming Learning', and if you think you could help to contribute to this goal we would be excited to hear from you.

This position is being offered on a flexible part-time basis of either 3 or 4 days per week. The successful candidate will be expected to work across all of our academies, which span both Bromley, Kent and Rye, East Sussex.

We welcome applications from experienced senior leaders from any phase of education. The successful candidate will be NASENCO qualified.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE WILL:

- Be able to articulate an ambitious vision for pupils of various backgrounds, including pupil premium, disadvantage and SEND.
- Have a passion for school improvement and development.
- Champion best practice and promote a culture of continuous improvement.
- Drive collaboration to enhance the educational experiences of all pupils across the trust.
- Hold demonstratable experience in working to improve the education of children and young people.
- Ensure that the quality of education for students with SEND and those students from disadvantaged backgrounds is ambitious and high quality
- Understand the role of curriculum in a school improvement model.
- Have held a position in a Senior Leadership Team within a school/academy or within a trust.
- Hold Qualified Teacher Status, along with a good Honours Degree.
- Preferably have completed an NPQH and/or NPQEL or be willing to undertake this qualification.

In return, we offer:

- A unique opportunity for a committed professional to influence and shape the education delivered by a Trust with over 4,500 pupils on roll.
- A happy community committed to delivering 'Life Transforming Learning'.
- A career path for experienced senior leaders that runs adjacent to seeking a Headship.
- A position within an extremely skilled and knowledgeable Central Education Team.
- An office base within our training and development centre, based in Bromley.
- Mentoring and experienced Leadership by the Trust Executive Team.

Aquinas CE Education Trust is committed to safeguarding the young people in our care and we expect all our staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check. As an employee of the Aquinas Church of England Education Trust you are required to have regard to the character of the Trust and its foundation and to undertake not to do anything in any way contrary to the interests of the foundation.

The post holder will report primarily to the Director of Education and will play a central role in shaping the direction and development of Aquinas.

The post holder has a clear understanding of the MAT environment and is strategic, ambitious, and innovative, committed to ensuring children are given the best life chances possible. Engaging stakeholders from all levels within the organisation are crucial to success, and the post holder will be an ambitious and talented leader.

AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY AND KEY TASKS

GENERAL DUTIES

- Approach school SEND and Inclusion sensitively across two distinct local contexts in both Rye (East Sussex) and Bromley.
- Contribute to the benefit of working within a multi-academy Trust by ensuring parity and fair access to resources between our sites.
- Work alongside the Education Directors and other colleagues within the Education team to develop a trust-wide strategy for improving outcomes in both phases, particularly for SEND pupils and those from disadvantaged areas.
- Work with the Education Directors and Education team to further develop the Aquinas offer to pupils.
- Work with the Secondary Education Director and Education team to further develop secondary phase curricula to ensure they lead to strong outcomes across the Trust.
- Ensure high-quality curricula enable effective progression between primary and secondary phases and realise a 'dividend' for those pupils who remain in our trust for the duration of their education.
- Understand the relationship between curriculum, teaching, learning and assessment and the actions needed to be taken to improve efficiency within the model.
- Develop a consistent approach to early reading and rapidly supporting struggling readers in the secondary phase so that all pupils can access an ambitious curriculum.
- Use data effectively to accurately evaluate the impact of chosen initiatives.

- Assist Headteachers and the Executive team in the development, implementation, and evaluation of school improvement plans.
- Work with Headteachers and the Training and Development Director to coordinate and deliver appropriate professional development for teachers and associates.
- Coach senior leaders, subject leaders and other members of staff.
- work with the Primary Director to coordinate the Trust curriculum networks and develop further Network leaders across the Trust.
- Support and challenge schools on priority setting, self-evaluation and educational under-achievement.
- Support the leadership and development of action research groups to develop pedagogy across Aquinas.
- Contribute to the succession planning strategy to retain and develop expertise within the Trust, including brokering development opportunities such as secondments and placements across the Trust.
- Support the induction of new schools into the Trust.

INCLUSION

- Ensure that the quality of education for students with SEND and those students from disadvantaged backgrounds is ambitious and high quality
- To lead on a portfolio of school specific leadership responsibilities as may be required from time to time in support of individual schools.
- Being accountable for the progress made towards meeting the Trust's development targets.
- Drafting policies and procedures, ensuring they take account of statutory requirements and/or national and local priorities and promote collective responsibility for their implementation.
- To inspire by example, setting high standards of leadership in support of outstanding student progress.
- Reporting national and local educational strategies and developments to all staff and as appropriate.
- Work with other Central Education Team colleagues to support schools in their compliance.
- Play a full part in both pre- and post-OFSTED preparation and planning initiatives designed to support continuous school improvement.
- Always maintain confidentiality.
- promote and safeguard the welfare of children and young people at the school.
- Play a full part in quality assurance visits to schools

TRAINING

The Trust is committed to the development and progression of all staff. Staff are encouraged to attend training courses appropriate to their own and department's needs. These include external courses, internal workshops, staff meetings and departmental training. The successful candidate will be required to undertake training to fulfil the requirements of the post.

The postholder will be expected to carry out such other duties as reasonably correspond to the general character of the post and are commensurate with its level of responsibility.

SAFEGUARDING

All colleagues have the responsibility for promoting the safeguarding and welfare of children. All colleagues should be aware of the school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy and work in accordance with this document at all times.

VARIATIONS

This job description sets out the duties of the post at the time when it was drawn up. Such duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and cannot of themselves justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post.
